

C R O A
T I A N
L I T E
R A T U
R E H R

Irena Vrkljan

Irena Vrkljan was born in 1930 in Belgrade. She is a Croatian-German writer.

Irena Vrkljan grew up in Zagreb. In the 1950s she started publishing her works in the former Yugoslavia. She also worked for television. In 1966 she began her studies at the West Berlin film school. Since the late 1960s, she is a freelance writer in Berlin and Zagreb. She is married to the Berlin writer Benno Meyer-Wehlack. In Croatia Irena Vrkljan received several important literary awards.

FOREIGN RIGHTS:

www.hrvatskodrustvopisaca.org

Irena Vrkljan

INFO

www.ljevak.hr

CROATIAN-LITERATURE.HR

139

MAIN WORKS:

Krik je samo tišina

Doba prijateljstva

Soba, taj strašni vrt

U koži moje sestre – award Tin Ujević for best poetry work

Svila, škare – award Ksaver Šandor Gjalski for best novel

Marina ili o biografiji – award Ivan Goran Kovačić for best novel

Berlinski rukopis

Dora, ove jeseni

Posljednje putovanje u Beč –award of Croatian Academy of Science and Arts

Smrt dolazi sa suncem

Naše ljubavi, naše bolesti

Zelene čarape

Sestra, kao iza stakla

Sabrana proza 1-2

Dnevnik zaboravljene mladosti

Svila nestala, škare ostale

Pismo u pismu (u suautorstvu s Jasnom Horvat)

Žene i ovaj suludi svijet

TRANSLATIONS

Seta: Italy (Forbici)

Vor roter Wand (1991-1993): Austria

The silk, the shears; Marina or About biography: US (Evanston), Austria (Roman)

For sample translation visit www.croatian-literature.hr